Hurry Work on New Tombs Demanded Commissioner Hynes of the Department of Corrections had an interview yesterday with Arthur Horgan of the firm of Horgan & Slattery, the Tammany architects; Walter Dickson, architect of the Tombs; Chandler Whittington and Carpenter John Long, in which he impressed upon them the necessity for no more delay in finishing up the Tombs job. They promised to hurry the work along.

Steve Brodle's Son Admits Theft. Steve Brodie's son, of the same name, pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge McMahon to stealing a fifty-dollar brooch from his sister. He will be sentenced Monday.
